AI-NET Procedure for changing the entry price For PC
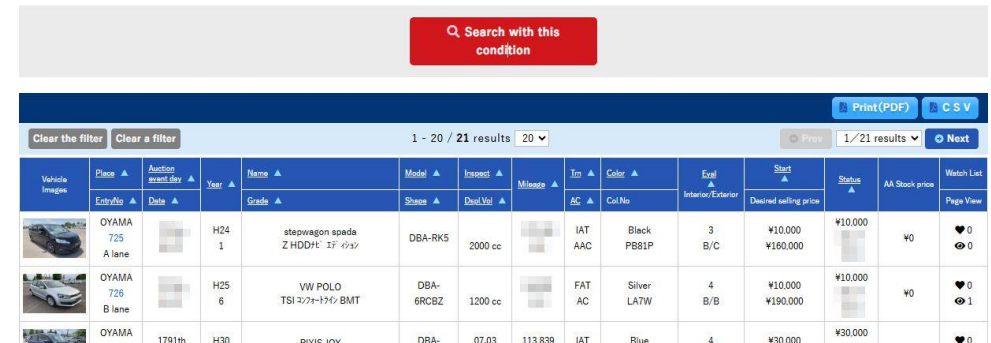

① Log in to AI-NET, move your mouse pointer over [My Page], and click [Entry list].

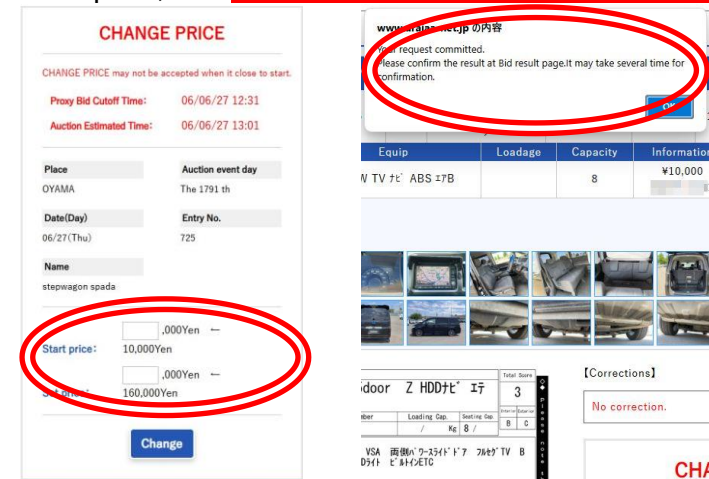

② Select the auction category, auction venue, and auction event date you wish to change the price, and click "Search with this condition".

※ You can change the price when the status is "Bid accepting". If the status is other than that, you cannot change the price. (The status will be changed to "Bid Accepting" at noon on the day before the event.)

③ A list of entry for the selected date will be displayed, and click on the Entry No. for which you wish to change the price.

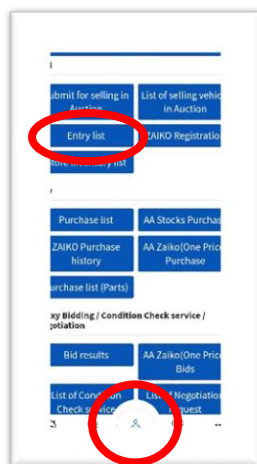

④ Change the start price or set price in the "CHANGE PRICE" field and click "Change".
When the "Your request committed" dialog box appears, the change has been tentatively accepted.

※ Please note that the start price cannot be increased from the current price, and once it is lowered, it cannot be restored.

Please confirm the price after the change by narrowing down the listings by following steps ① through ③ again.
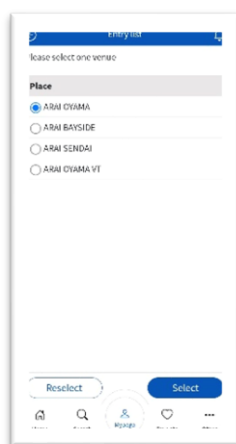

Thank you for your cooperation.

① Log in to AI-NET Mobile and tap [My Page] > [Entry list].

② Select the Event Selection for which you wish to change the price.

③ Select the Place for the exhibit for which you wish to change the price.

④ Select the date of the auction for which you wish to change the price.

※ You can change the price when the status is "Bid accepting". If the status is other than that, you cannot change the price.

⑤ A list of the entries in the selected date will be displayed, and then tap the photo of the entry for which you wish to change the price.

⑥ Scroll down the screen, change the start price or asking price in the "Change Price" field, and tap "Change Price".

※ Please note that the start price cannot be increased from the current price, and once it is lowered, it cannot be restored.

⑦ When the "Your request committed" dialog box appears, the change has been tentatively accepted.

The changed price can be confirmed by going back to the date selection and selecting the date again.

Thank you for your cooperation.
